September Scripture Treasurization

1 Thessalonians 3:11-13

¹¹ Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you, ¹² and may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, as we do for you, ¹³ so that he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

FAITHFULNESS WITH APPLYING THE WORD BIBLE CONFERENCE

BEYOND CHAPTER & VERSE

The Theology and Practice of Biblical Application

Friday, November 3 - Sunday, November 5

Featured Speaker, Ken Casillas

Kengrew up as a “missionary kid” in Puerto Rico. He came to Christ as a boy and later sensed God’s calling to a ministry of the Word. He is Senior Pastor of Cleveland Park Bible Church in Spartanburg, SC. Pastor Ken holds a Ph.D. in Old Testament Interpretation and teaches on the faculty of Bob Jones University Seminary. He and his wife, Soraya, have five children.

¹Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

²Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

³Not only that, but we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance,

⁴and endurance produces character, and character produces hope,

⁵and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

⁶For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.

⁷For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die—

⁸but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

⁹Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God.

¹⁰For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life.

¹¹More than that, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.
